OUR MESSAGE: LIVING BY THE WELL

1. LIVING BY THE WELL.

In the natural sense living at a well of water means having direct access to that which gives life and sustains life also shows reliance and dependence on the substance it contains (water).

2. GOD OPENING EYES TO SEE.

To see what previously has not been seen – yet it was there all the time.

3. GOD SEEING US.

God not only sees us in our need and crises of life. He takes note of our cries our sufferings and the things that we are going through.

4. GOD ALSO MAKES US AWARE THAT HE IS WATCHING (SEES) US.

God open our eyes so that we are consciously aware that of his 'watchful eye' on us.

5. AND US SEEING GOD.

And in this whole process we are able to SEE GOD – In his protective and caring concern for us – his children.

1. LIVING BY THE WELL - ISAAC (the son of Abraham) DWELT BY A WELL.

Genesis 25:11 And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac dwelt by the well LAHAIROI. KJV

* LIVING BY A WELL WAS EXTREMELY IMPORTANT IN OLD TESTAMENT TIMES.

- Especially in the arid regions of the Middle East, wells were essential for survival, serving as the heart of villages, gathering places for communities, and critical sources of water for people.
- Isaac, the son of Abraham, is often referred to as "THE MAN OF WELLS" because his life and livelihood were intimately connected to finding and maintaining these water sources.
- Three major couples in the Old Testament met or established their marriage covenant at a well.
- Abraham's servant found Rebekah (his future wife) at a well where she offered water to him and his camels Genesis 24).
- Jacob met Rachel (his future wife) at a well and famously moved a large stone to water her flock- (Genesis 29).
- Moses met his wife Zipporah at a well (Exodus 2) Moses met his future wife, Zipporah, at a well in Midian after defending her and her sisters from shepherds.
- These encounters highlighted divine guidance in choosing a spouse, as the well served as a central meeting place for community life.

* ISAAC LIVED BY A WELL - Genesis 25:11 After the death of Abraham, God blessed his son Isaac, and Isaac dwelt at Beer-lahai-roi [A well to the Living One Who sees me]. AMP

Genesis 25:11 And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac: and Isaac dwelt by the well Lahai-roi. Webster

* BUT IT WAS SPECIFIC WELL - CALLED "LOHAIROI" - WHICH MEANS "THE WELL OF THE LIVING ONE, MY SEER, WHO SEES ME.

* AND IT WAS HAGAR THAT NAMED THIS WELL -THIS WELL GOT IT'S NAME FROM HAGAR the servant girl in Abram and Sara's house.

Genesis 16:13 She gave this name to the LORD who spoke to her: "You are the God who sees me," for she said, "I have now seen the One who sees me." NIV - I HAVE NOW SEEN THE ONE WHO SEES ME.

- * THIS IS WHERE ISAAC LIVED – MADE HIS HOME – THIS IS WHERE HE RESIDED / LIVED.
- This meant that ISAAC had constant and direct access to spiritual nourishment and divine grace.
- It also represented a life of reliance on God for inner strength and satisfaction.
- IT IS ALSO GOOD FOR US TO LIVE AT SUCH A WELL – WHERE GOD SEES US, AND WE HAVE CONSTANT AND DIRECT ACCESS TO SPIRITUAL NOURISHMENT AND DIVINE GRACE.

THERE WERE TWO SIGNIFICANT AND IMPACTING OCCASIONS IN THE EARLY LIFE OF HAGAR THAT RELATED TO THIS SAME WELL CALLED "LOHAIROI".

In Genesis 16

6. Then Sarai mistreated Hagar; so, she fled from her.
7. And an angel of the Lord found Hagar near a spring in the desert.
8. The angel asked her why she is running away and she told him the story of Sarai dealing with her harshly.
9. The angel tells her to go back to her mistress and then he encourages her by telling her of the future pathway of Ishmael and what he would become.

13. She gave this name to the Lord who spoke to her: "You are the God who sees me," for she said, "I have now seen the One who sees me."

14. That is why the well was called Beer Lahai Roi; it is still there, between Kadesh and Bered. NIV

And in Genesis 21:14-

14. Abraham gave some water & food to Hagar and permanently expelled her and her son Ishmael from his household.
14. She went on her way and wandered in the desert of Beersheba.
15. Then the water and the food ran out she separated the Ishmael from her as she could not bear to hear his dying cries.
17. Then God heard the Boy crying and sent an angel to speak with Hagar.
19. Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. So, she went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.
- 20 God was with the boy as he grew up. He lived in the desert and became an archer. NIV

FOR US AS BELIEVERS

* GOD'S WELL - IS CALVARY.

- Have our eyes been opened to see the amazing wealth and divine grace that is available to us through calvary's redemption?
- This is the kind of place where we as a believer should be living – taking up our residence where we can avail ourselves of direct and constant access to God's favour, his enabling power and his spiritual nourishment.
- SO, LET US ASK GOD TO OPEN OUR EYES TO SEE CALVARY IN ALL IT'S MAJESTY AND FULNESS.

* GOD SEES US – BUT HAVE WE SEEN THE LIVING ONE WHO SEES US?

- Have we seen his personality, nature and the kind of person he is?
- Do we need to take some time out to see the One who see us – seeing who He really is?
- He is A COMPASSIONATE GOD, slow to anger, and of great mercy etc. Psalms 103:8 Psalms 145:8, Joel 2:13.
- Like Hagar God showed that he is open to our desperate needs and cries for help.
- That he is openly responds with empathy towards our sufferings, our hurts, our rejection and ridicule by others, and those challenging and pressing things that we are facing in our lives.

* WE NEED TO ABIDE - DWELL - IN THE PLACE OF DIVINE KNOWLEDGE OF THIS DIVINE TRUTH - 'THAT PLACE WHERE THE LIVING ONE SEES US.

* WE NEED TO WALK EACH DAY KNOWING THAT GOD SEES ME.

* AND WE ALSO NEED TO POSITION OURSELVES IN SUCH A WAY TO EXPERIENCE THE CONTINUAL UNVEILING / UNFOLDING OF THE KIND OF GOD THAT HE IS.

- ▶ I AM SO BLESSED WITH THE TWO THINGS THAT HAGAR EXPERIENCED IN HER DISTRESS.
- ▶ THAT I AM AWARE WITHOUT DOUBT THAT GOD SEES ME – WATCHES OUT FOR ME - AND
- ▶ THAT I HAVE HAD DIVINE MOMENTS WHERE I HAVE SEEN HIM WHO SEE ME.

Amen Ps Barry.
