Our Theme: THE SCARLET THREAD

Joshua 2:12-21

I thought it appropriate to take the story of the woman in the city of Jericho who tied a scarlet thread (rope) in the window of her house that brought redemption and salvation to herself and her whole family.

The full story can be found in the book of Joshua 2 and Joshua 6. Here are the highlights about the scarlet thread drawn from those chapters.

Making the oath - Joshua 2:12-13, 17- 21

12 Now then, please swear to me by the Lord that, as I have dealt kindly with you, you also will deal kindly with my father's house, and give me a sure sign 13 that you will save alive my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and deliver our lives from death.”

17 The men said to her, “We will be guiltless with respect to this oath of yours that you have made us swear.

18 Behold, when we come into the land, you shall tie this scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, and you shall gather into your house your father and mother, your brothers, and all your father's household.

21 And she said, “According to your words, so be it.” Then she sent them away, and they departed. And she tied the scarlet cord in the window. ESV

Joshua 6:22-25

22 But to the two men who had spied out the land, Joshua said, “Go into the prostitute's house and bring out from there the woman and all who belong to her, as you swore to her.”

23 So the young men who had been spies went in and brought out Rahab and her father and mother and brothers and all who belonged to her. And they brought all her relatives and put them outside the camp of Israel.

25 But Rahab the prostitute and her father's household and all who belonged to her, Joshua saved alive. And she has lived in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. ESV

The scarlet thread of Rahab and the blood of the Passover lamb are types or pictures of the Biblical truths of divine redemption, protection, and salvation by faith.

Rahab and family spared from death and destruction by the scarlet thread hanging from her house In Jericho, and the Israelites also spared from destruction by the shed blood of the Passover lamb sprinkled over the door of the Israelites house in Egypt Exodus 12.

- Both were the signs of deliverance that included all the family occupants of the house.
- Both required active obedience in faith / trust in the promise that if they displayed those two things; the blood of the lamb and the scarlet thread, they would be spared from destruction.
- Both the scarlet thread and the blood of the Passover lamb foreshadow the atoning blood of Christ's death on the cross that purchased redemption and Salvation from the wrath of God.
- “Scarlet” and “Crimson” are used interchangeably in Biblical Hebrew Words for Scarlet and Crimson.
- Shani (שָׁנִי): The primary Biblical Hebrew word translated as scarlet. And Tola (תּוֹלַעַת) or Tola'at (תּוֹלַעַת): The word literally meaning “worm” or “grub”, which is frequently translated as crimson or “scarlet worm”.
- Both colours share the same origin, a brilliant red dye extracted from a scale insect / worm (Kermes ilicis) found on oak trees.
- Scarlet / Crimson (Tola'at Shani) - Biblically Scarlet represents blood, and substitutionary sacrifice.
- The dye came from the Coccus ilicis (a scale insect or “crimson worm”). To produce the dye, the mother worm had to die, attaching itself to wood to birth it's young.
- Scarlet is a bright red colour that is traditionally made from dried scale insects.

IN ISAIAH 1:18 THE TWO WORDS ARE USED TO MEAN THE SAME.

- Isaiah 1:18 “Come now, let's settle this,” says the Lord. “Though your sins are like scarlet, I will make them as white as snow. Though they are red like crimson, I will make them as white as wool. NLT

THE CRIMSON THREAD

Praise God for redemptive thread that runs through the Old and New Testaments of a saviour who sacrificed himself for sinners and by the shedding of his blood redeemed us from God's wrath, forgiving our sins, making us right in God's sight.

AND JESUS IS THAT SAVIOUR.

HYMN There is a fountain filled with blood

Drawn from Immanuel's veins;

And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,

Lose all their guilty stains

I do believe, I will believe, that Jesus died for me

And on the cross he shed his blood, from sin to set me free.

Amen Ps Barry
